

WAR WILL SOON END THE DISPATCHES SAY

PRES. M'KINLEY RECEIVES EN- COURAGING REPORTS.

General Weyler Is Soon to Be Recalled and Autonomy Proposed On a Broad Basis—Slow Work On Tariff Bill In the Senate—The Amendments Offered.

Washington, June 10.—President McKinley has roughly outlined a Cuban policy. The president is hopeful that the war is nearing the end and that radical action on the part of this government will not be necessary to protect American citizens or restore peace. From the most reliable information the president can obtain he believes that the problem will be solved in the near future without necessitating a change in the conservative policy he adopted when he entered the White House. The president has been unofficially informed that Weyler is to be recalled, that a new captain general is to be sent to Cuba, and that autonomy is to be offered on a basis much broader than the reforms heretofore announced.

The publication of the Lee report in advance of its reception at the state department has given much annoyance to the officials, and probably will be made the subject of a quiet inquiry, inasmuch as it is believed that the position of our government in the negotiations that are sure to follow with Spain is weakened by thus putting its case in possession of the other side.

It is learned that the president has offered the position of minister to Spain to ex-Gov. Jacob D. Cox of Ohio. Although almost 70 years of age, Gen. Cox is a man of much vigor and energy. He was governor of Ohio in 1865 and 1867, and for two years was secretary of the interior in President Grant's cabinet, from which he retired on account of disagreement with certain measures of the administration. Later he served in congress, and for a time was president of the Wabash railroad.

WORK ON TARIFF.

Mr. Mills of Texas Denounces the Bill
as a Class Measure.

Washington, June 11.—The senate had a period of tariff speeches Wednesday, and, as a result, little progress was made on the bill. Mr. Rawlins (Utah) and Mr. Mills (Tex.) discussed the Democratic attitude on the tariff from their respective standpoints.

Mr. Mills severely arraigned the bill as a class measure, designed to build up a vast fund for distribution among the beneficiaries of the bill and at the expense of the taxpayer. In 1890, he said, a similar act had fallen like the bubonic plague on the country, and the tribunal of the people had put the Republican party in quarantine.

Mr. Mills gave tables showing the vast fortunes of a few individuals, who were, he said, to receive the benefits of this bill. After reviewing many state and national Democratic platforms, Mr. Mills declared that a man could not be a Democrat who did not support the doctrine that a tariff must be limited to revenue only.

Later in the day Mr. Cannon (Utah) proposed an amendment placing an export bounty on agricultural products. He spoke for two hours on the need of giving the farmer a share of the benefits of the tariff. Mr. Butler (N. C.) also spoke in favor of giving the farmer equal benefits with other classes under the bill. Only half a page of the bill, covering four brief and comparatively unimportant paragraphs, were disposed of during the day.

The Republican members of the finance committee will withdraw the amendment for an additional tax on beer and for the duty of 10 cents a pound on tea. In explanation of this, a member of the finance committee said that the pressure for the withdrawal of these amendments has been very great, and that many Republican senators have made decided stands against them.

Clough Wins His Point.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 10.—Gov. Clough refuses to consent to the arrangement made by Attorney-General Child whereby the power of the grand jury to subpoena him was to be tested in the Supreme court by habeas corpus. As he has consented to have the bank reports examined in his office, it is probable that the grand jury will gain the information it seeks in this way, and further proceedings will be dropped.

Double Tragedy in Kentucky.

Albany, Ky., June 11.—A double tragedy was the outcome of a family feud Tuesday. Henry Foster and John Shootman, who had long been at odds, quarreled. Foster stabbed Shootman in the side several times with a dirk. Ephram Redell went to Shootman's assistance and shot Foster through the head. Both men were fatally wounded. Redell has not been arrested.

Judge Boggs Is Elected.

Cairo, Ill., June 10.—Justice Baker concedes the election of Judge Boggs to the supreme bench by a small plurality. Returns from all the counties would indicate the majority to be 154. Alexander county's official vote is: Baker, 1,844; Boggs, 899.

THE ESTIMATE IS TOO LOW

Figures on the Total Wheat Supply in 1896 Are Already Surpassed.

Minneapolis, June 10.—The Northwestern Miller says that up to June 1 about 100,000,000 bushels of wheat had been received in Minneapolis and Duluth, some 13,000,000 had been used for seed and 20,000,000 had been ground by interior mills and those in contiguous states that have received their wheat from the northwest without it passing through and being counted in Minneapolis or Duluth receipts.

Putting these items together they make 133,000,000 bushels of the 1896 supply already disposed of, which is 1,000,000 more than the great bulk of people in the northwest had figured on as the total supply.

It is now found that on June 1 there was as great a supply of wheat in the northwest as was on hand Aug. 1, 1895. That was counted at 25,000,000 bushels, which was probably not far from right. It follows, therefore, that the wheat crop of the northwest was underestimated some 25,000,000 bushels.

DAILY BASE BALL REPORT

Results of Yesterday's Games Played in the Various Leagues.

The east is rain-soaked, and only two games on the National league circuit were possible yesterday. At Philadelphia the grounds were not fit to play, and it was decided to try two games today. Baltimore succeeded in working in a game with Cleveland. A large crowd saw the downfall of the Orioles' bitterest enemies. The defeat forced Cleveland to a tie with Pittsburgh. The two tail-enders played together, St. Louis being shut out by Washington. The scores:

Tacoma, Wash., June 10.—The grasshoppers threaten to ravage eastern Washington. In Columbia and Whitman counties many gardens have been cut to the ground. Cabbage and other vegetables are totally stripped. The greatest damage has been done to wheat, which is now in the milk. Old residents of Kansas claim that the grasshoppers are of the same variety that used to work destruction throughout that country.

THE LUTHERANS MET AT MANSFIELD, O.

GENERAL SYNOD OF THE CHURCH IN CONVENTION.

Important Gathering at the Buckeye
State—Opening Services Held
Wednesday—Reformed Episcopal Church In Session at New York—
Other Religious Meetings.

Mansfield, Ohio, June 10.—As fast as the delegates to the thirty-eighth biennial session of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church poured into the city Wednesday the probable result of the election of a synodical president was taken up in conversation. Secretary Rev. W. S. Fremis, of York, Pa., has announced by letter that he will not be a candidate for re-election, which virtually insures the election of Rev. Dr. W. H. Dunbar, of Baltimore, Md., who is so far the only candidate for the office.

The work to be done by the synod will simply be routine. There being no doctrinal dissensions throughout the entire church, there are no matters of such purport to be brought before the synod.

The opening service of the session of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church was held in the evening. About 250 were present. Rev. Dr. H. Louis Baugher, of Gettysburg, the president of the synod, delivered a sermon. He was followed by S. G. Cummings, a prominent attorney, who delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the Lutheran churches of the city. Ex-Representative H. C. Hedges warmly and heartily extended the hospitality of Mansfield to the synodical delegates. At the conclusion of his address the service was turned into a general thanksgiving.

Rev. J. Jespersen Retained.

Moline, Ill., June 10.—Considerable excitement was created during Wednesday's session of Augustana synod by a motion of Rev. S. G. Ohman of New Britain, Conn., to the effect that the office of general manager of Augustana college, now held by Rev. J. Jespersen, be abolished. After heated discussion the motion was voted down unanimously. It is authoritatively announced that Dr. Olssen has resigned his determination to resign as president of the college and will continue in office for another year.

Bishop Fallows Is Re-Elected.

New York, June 10.—The general council of the Reformed Episcopal church of the United States and Canada opened here Wednesday. This is the fifteenth general council of the church, and is expected to be one of the most important since the organization of the denomination twenty-four years ago.

Bishop Fallows of Chicago was elected presiding bishop for three years, and the Rev. Charles F. Hendricks of Wilmington, Del., was re-elected secretary.

THE SILVER MEN SATISFIED

National Committee Will Meet at the Call of Its Chairman.

Chicago, June 10.—Contrary to all expectations, the leaders of the new silver party did not continue deliberations Wednesday. The first day's proceedings had been so eminently satisfactory that the prime movers, at a secret conference, decided to let well enough alone.

The national committee of the new party will be subject to the call of its chairman, ex-Congressman Charles A. Towne.

Future work will for a great part be left in the hands of committees, especially the executive committee. This body will have the power to call a national convention and take steps toward organizing the new political power in all sections of the country.

Ex-Senator Fred J. Dubois will be the chairman of this body, according to the announcement of Mr. Towne. "The other six members I have not decided upon," he said.

ILLINOIS GERMAN LUTHERANS

in Annual Convention.

By virtue of the provisions of the new law, city councils may extend street railway franchises, the 5-cent fare remains fixed for twenty years, and the transportation companies may combine.

JAPAN BACKS DOWN IN HAWAIIAN CASE

THE LITTLE EMPIRE IS NOW MORE REASONABLE.

Former Insolent Demands of the Mikado Are Greatly Modified—Only Asks the Island Republic to Pay for "Mistakes"—Hawaii Will Accede to the Terms.

San Francisco, Cal., June 10.—Advices received from Honolulu, per steamship Australia, are to the effect that Japanese Minister Shimamura has changed his attitude to some extent.

After the departure of the steamship Peru several conferences were held between Minister Cooper and Shimamura, with the result that the Japanese representative made proposals of a much more reasonable nature than those which he first offered.

Originally Japan demanded indemnity for the total number of immigrants turned away from the island, 320 yen for each man refused landing. Now it is understood that she is willing to accept damages in cases where the immigrant was illegally rejected. This proposition the Hawaiian government will accept. The Hawaiian government admits that among the thousands or more immigrants a few errors may have been made, and if any such appear upon a thorough investigation, expresses its readiness to pay for such mistakes.

THE DAUNTLESS DISMISSED

Trial of the Alleged Filibuster Finds No Proof for Conviction.

Key West, Fla., June 10.—The Dauntless charged with being engaged in a filibustering expedition, has been dismissed, as no evidence was found to hold her. Commissioner Otto said there was no proof that it was an armed expedition and ordered the men discharged.

A train between Havana and Matanzas has been blown up by dynamite and about seventy persons wounded. They were brought to Havana. It is believed many dead are under the destroyed train.

It is said the insurgents have captured an important port in Santiago de Cuba province. The Spanish fleet at Havana has left for that place.

Durrant's Fate in Doubt.

San Francisco, Cal., June 10.—Warden Hale of San Quentin came to town Wednesday for the purpose of conferring with Attorney-General Fitzgerald as to his position with regard to the execution of Theodore Durrant, but after being closeted together for two hours both officials declined to be interviewed as to the conclusion reached by them. Durrant's attorneys profess entire unconcern as to what the state officials intend to do with their client, claiming that the warden dare not proceed with the execution after being served with a notice of appeal to the Supreme court of the United States, and threatening in event of Durrant being hanged to proceed against the warden and governor upon charges of conspiracy and treason.

Iowa G. A. R. Encampment.

Marshalltown, Iowa, June 10.—Although it has rained about half the time since the state Grand Army encampment began, it has been one of the most largely attended ever held. Over 3,000 veterans participated in the grand parade Wednesday afternoon. For department commander A. H. Evans of Keokuk defeated L. B. Raymond of Hampton and C. W. Neal of Stuart. The woman's relief corps elected Mrs. Georgia McClelland of Denison department president against Mrs. Barbara Bettwiller of Muscatine and Mrs. Eleanor Hawks of Colfax.

Damage Done by Fire.

Carlinville, Ill., June 10.—A serious fire visited this city Wednesday afternoon, destroying over $200,000 worth of property. It started on the main building of the St. Louis Milling company's establishment, which had a capacity of 1,000 barrels of flour a day, and in two hours the whole plant of five buildings was burned to the ground. The company's loss will aggregate over $150,000. There was $75,000 insurance on the plant, but very little on the stock. Three residences were destroyed.

Mystic Shriners Elect Officers.

Detroit, Mich., June 10.—The final business of the imperial council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was held Wednesday. The council by a unanimous vote decided to hold the 1898 meeting at Dallas, Tex., beginning the second Tuesday in June. New officers were elected. Albert M. McGaffey, Denver, was chosen grand potentate. All officers were installed at the closing session of the council in the afternoon.

Trying to Save Hamilton.

Ottumwa, Iowa, June 10.—All the members of the Ottumwa bar except six, three of whom were engaged in the prosecution of Hamilton, the convicted Eldon bank robber, have petitioned the district judge to reconsider his decision and grant a new trial, stating that, in their opinion, Hamilton was wrongfully convicted, under the evidence.

HOBART ONE OF THE THREE CHARGED WITH BEING IN A GIANTIC RAILROAD POOL.

Chicago, June 10.—Garret A. Hobart, vice-president of the United States, figures in an agreement of the Joint Traffic Association by which ten railroads running east from Chicago formed a gigantic "physical pool" and distributed freight traffic among themselves on a percentage basis.

Evidence to this effect was brought out before the interstate commerce commission yesterday in its investigation into alleged gran rate cutting among the railroads. The names of Vice-President Hobart, J. F. Goddard and E. H. Leonard appeared at the foot of the agreement as arbitrators of the percentage to go to each road. The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern alone diverted 12,466,140 pounds of freight to a competing line from Feb. 26 to April 1, 1897, in order to keep faith in the big pool formed among the east-bound roads.

The commerce commission claimed in 1895 that this pooling was a violation of the interstate commerce law, while the Joint Traffic Association declared a physical pool was necessary in order to maintain the rates. The case is still pending, though the United States circuit and appellate courts decided against the commission.

Queen Regent Acted Alone.

New York, June 10.—A dispatch to the World from Madrid says Senor Sagasta never advised the queen regent to keep Premier Canovas and the conservatives in office. On the contrary, he laid stress upon the expediency of the advent of the liberals into office with a view to the recall of Weyler. Marshal Campos positively advised the queen regent to select any cabinet that would be willing to undertake a more liberal policy in Cuba and recall Weyler.

Mob Forestalls the Gallows.

Princess Anne, Md., June 10.—William Andrews, colored, alias "Cuba," was taken from the officers at the door of the courthouse today and killed by a mob. Andrews had been tried, convicted and sentenced to death for feloniously assaulting Mrs. Benjamin T. Kelley near Marion, May 5. Judge Bage, who passed the death sentence upon Andrews, endeavored to reason with the excited crowd, but in vain.

Robert J. Finley Dead.

New York, June 10.—Robert Johnstone Finley, manager of the McClure newspaper syndicate, died last night, aged 29 years. He was associated with Dr. Albert Shaw in building up the American edition of the Review of Reviews. He was a native of Ottawa, Ill., and a brother of President Finley of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill.

Other Forgers Take Heed.

CANADIAN LODGES MAY BE SHUT OUT

SUPREME LODGE A. O. U. W. MEETS AT MILWAUKEE.

The Thirty Thousand Members in the British Colony May Find Themselves
Cut Off—State Federation of Labor
Meets At Appleton—Free Masons
Elect Officers—Other State News.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 10.—The supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen adjourned at noon Wednesday for the day. The session in the morning was devoted chiefly to routine business. The annual election of officers will not be held for several days, and the Canadian question will probably occupy some time in disposition. There is a tendency on the part of the supreme body to deal firmly and finally with the recalcitrant Grand Lodge of Ontario, and the 30,000 members in that province are liable to find themselves repudiated by the higher organization. Des Moines, Iowa; Lincoln, Neb., and Boston are all working to secure the next meeting.

Wisconsin Federation of Labor.

Appleton, Wis., June 10.—The Wisconsin Federation of Labor Wednesday began the consideration of the proposed new constitution and added to the preamble a recommendation in favor of the postal savings bank system, and also provided for the election of president and vice-president in addition to the secretary and treasurer and executive board, who have heretofore been state officers of the organization. Resolutions were adopted recommending the passage of a law regarding the building of scaffolding for workmen on buildings, similar to the Minnesota law, and denouncing the "plunk-me" law system of paying wages in scrip or store orders.

Scandinavian Baptists.

La Crosse, Wis., June 10.—The annual conference of the Scandinavian Baptist church for the district consisting of Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin is in session here and will continue over Sunday. Discussion of doctrinal matters will occupy most of the time. Officers elected are: President, Rev. J. A. O'Hern, Chicago; vice-president, Rev. C. Hemmington, Chicago; secretary, Rev. J. E. Sellevold, Blair.

Grand Lodge Wisconsin Free Masons.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 10.—The grand lodge of free and accepted masons of Wisconsin was occupied Wednesday in the revision of the rules and by-laws. The convention will not depart from its usual custom of advancing the deputy grand master to the place of grand master, and Aldro Jenks will therefore be succeeded by N. C. Giffin of Fond du Lac.

Movement to Curtail Production.

Kaukauna, Wis., June 10.—Beginning this week the print paper mills of the Fox river valley will shut down two days each week—Friday and Saturday—in order to curtail the output and better the market for their product if possible. This movement, it is reported, will be general throughout the country.

FIVE HUNDRED ARE DROWNED

Great Storm Disaster Overwhelms Chinese Fishermen.

Victoria, B. C., June 10.—Meager particulars were brought by the Empress of Japan of a disaster which befell the fishermen of a Chusan archipelago, off the coast of China. On May 6, when all the fishing boats were out on the fishing banks, a terrible gale sprung up. Of the several hundred boats out at the time very few returned, and it is estimated that some 500 men lost their lives. The storm was one of those sudden ones for which the coast of China is noted, and the fishermen had no chance to seek shelter. The storm swept over the entire archipelago, which extends across the mouth of Hanchow bay on the eastern coast of China. Several large junks were lost, in which scores perished.

Declares Lorrant Is Innocent.

San Luis Obispo, Cal., June 10.—A. S. Austin, formerly a prominent attorney of this city, writes to County Clerk Whicheer, from Newport, Ore., that he was in San Francisco the night Blanche Lamont is supposed to have been murdered, and says in his letter: "I think I know a point that will save Durrant, although if I was to speak out and say so people would say I was crazy, the same as others who have advanced theories. I am morally certain of Durrant's innocence and, mathematically, as to who is guilty yfrom what I saw the night of the murder, when I was in San Francisco. I think that I should quietly tell my story to Durrant's attorney."

Calhoun at the White House.

Washington, June 10.—Mr. Calhoun, the president's special commissioner to Cuba, had another conference with President McKinley Wednesday. Owing to the fact that Mr. McKinley was to leave at noon on the trip to Nashville, Mr. Calhoun went to the White House at 9:30 by appointment. He was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Fishback. They remained with the president about three-quarters of an hour. Neither Secretary Sherman nor Assistant Secretary Day was present at the conference.

"CLASS DAY" FUN RULED LAST NIGHT

AMUSING EXERCISES HELD AT MYERS' GRAND.

One Act Farce Was Presented, and a Large Audience Enjoyed the Performance Fully—Pupils Acquit Themselves With Credit—The Graduation Proper Tonight.

Class day fun ruled at the Myers' Grand last evening, and the house was filled to the doors. The exercises were unusually amusing, and had been arranged very effectively. An overture by Smith's orchestra was the opening number, and then came the farce "class day." The cast was as follows:

Hugh Hemmingway, the class president, presided. The young ladies wore dresses of white organdie, with violets, the class colors being white and purple. The class history had been very cleverly compiled by Miss Anna E. Smiley. Miss Josephine Farnsworth had written the class prophecy in rhyme, and evinced great capability in the production, her paper being one of the best presented.

Miss Kittie Enright's oration was delivered in German, and although but few in the audience could understand it, those who could comprehend, commended Miss Enright warmly.

The German duet by Misses Maude Day and Allie Carroll was a very finished number and they were given liberal applause.

Miss Harriet Bostwick presented the tokens to the class in a particularly happy manner, her lines being in verse. The "tokens" were very appropriate and caused much merriment.

Portrait of Longfellow.
Hugh C. Hemmingway presented the token of the class to the school—a handsome framed portrait of Henry W. Longfellow. Mr. Hemmingway's paper was an unusually thoughtful one and bore the stamp of ability.

"Knee Deep in June," James Whitcomb Riley's favorite poem, was recited by Miss Jessie Scofield in an exceptionally pleasant manner, and she received hearty and well merited applause for her excellent effort.

The curtain was then dropped. When it arose again the members of the class were standing about a wagon, gaily decorated in purple and white. A gilt star was attached to the vehicle, the class motto being "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star."

The class song was a very clever composition. Miss Luella Croft was the authoress, and she had done exceptionally well. Miss Genevieve Conway played the accompaniment. The class yell was given, and the curtain dropped on the conclusion of the exercises.

Tonight's Exercises.
The program for this evening will consist of orations and theses by those members of the class who did not appear on class night. Those who will take part this evening are—Luella Croft, Lucy Akin, Jessie Metcalf, Everett Fisher, Nettie Mable, Henry Scott, Kittie Enright, Katie Mackin, Anna Callen, Agnes Lynch, Grace Spoon, Gertrude Skavlem, Charles Raymond, Edith Raymond, Lulu Leffingwell and Walter Clark.

IS OPPOSED BY BANKERS

Assignment Law May Be Repealed By the Legislature In August.

When the legislature meets in adjourned session next August, it is likely that a strong effort will be made to secure the repeal of the new assignment law. While none of the bankers went to Madison to oppose the law when it was before the legislature and many of them expressed themselves as satisfied with it, before its passage, it is stated that they are not in the least pleased with the measure. In this connection it is stated that in place of being in session two or three days, the Legislature is likely to be busy for five or six weeks, and perhaps longer.

A great many attorneys have expressed themselves as being dissatisfied with the law because they think that it is not equitable. It is stated that every member of the judiciary committee opposed the law, but it went through by default. It was put off from time to time, but as no one appeared to oppose the bill, it was overlooked and was among those that went through just before the close of the session. It was sent to the house with the hope, it is said, that it would die there, but it went through. There have been several failures of late that might be prevented, it is claimed, were it possible for the bankers to secure what they consider sufficient security for loans.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ACCIDENT.

Hook and Ladder Wagon Collides With Telephone Pole.

One of the collars came unhooked while the hook and ladder wagon was responding to an alarm of fire last evening, and the horse jumped out of the harness. The accident occurred as the team was about to turn from River street onto Milwaukee street, in the deep gutter. The loose horse plunged ahead as far as the reins would let him, and headed for Palmer & Bonesteel's store. The pole kept striking him, however, and turned him onto River street. Near the corner, the wagon collided with a telephone pole, snapping the tongue of the wagon off short. The team was then controlled. Captain Whiting of the Fire Police, Electrician Kline, Driver Champion, Pipeman Dohoney and F. C. Haseltin, who were on the wagon, escaped injury. The dashboard of the wagon was wrecked, but otherwise it did not seem to be injured. The pole was made of ash, and the break shows that it was not a strong piece of wood. The firemen say the deep gutter at the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, is the worst place in town to cross.

H. M. REIGART DEAD AT CLINTON HOUSE

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN IS SUDDENLY CALLED.

Had Placed Flowers On His Wife's Grave the Day Before His Death—Passed Away In An Hour After He Was Stricken—Something of His Career.

Clinton, June 10.—The community was greatly shocked at the sudden death of H. M. Reigart, which occurred at his home. Although somewhat out of health for a number of years, Mr. Reigart had been feeling better than usual for several months and his death at this time was wholly unlooked for. He was taken with heart trouble to which he had been subject, and died in about half an hour, a few minutes before Dr. Covert who had been sent for at his request, arrived. He was unconscious at the last and passed peacefully away.

Henry M. Reigart was born in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, seventy-two years ago last August, and came to Wisconsin about 1857, settling on his farm one mile north of the village, which has been his home ever since. For the year past he stayed with his daughter, Mrs. Kittie Loomis of Chicago, a good deal, arriving home from a visit on Friday of last week.

Wife Died Suddenly Too.

His wife died also suddenly two years ago Jan. 21 of the present year. He was one of a large family of children, of whom are now living Mrs. Slaymaker and Mrs. McLennan, of Beloit, Ham Reigart and a married sister living, namely: E. C. Reigart, of Milwaukee; Mrs. Ed Loomis, of Chicago; and Mrs. Paul Benson, of Evanston. Two daughters, Anna and Nettie, died a number of years ago.

Mr. Reigart was a kind man, an indulgent father and a good neighbor. He had hosts of friends, never made enemies or had trouble with any one and attended strictly to his own business. He will be greatly missed and long mourned.

Amassed Considerable Wealth.

In his earlier day Mr. Reigart saw something of the western hemisphere, making a trip to California at the time of the gold excitement. The journey was made by way of Cape Horn, and the voyage lasted 208 days. He remained on the Pacific coast several years, engaged in mining and succeeded in gaining considerable wealth.

The day before his death he visited the cemetery to arrange the flowers on his wife's and children's graves, little thinking ere they withered he, too, would be laid at rest beside them. The funeral was held at his home, and was very largely attended by sympathizing neighbors and friends. Rev. W. J. Leek preached the funeral sermon. His remains were interred in the Clinton cemetery.

AFTON FARMERS REPLANT CORN

Many of Them Used Poor Seed—Some Other Happenings.

Some of our farmers are having to replant their corn owing to the use of poor seed. The crop, at best, is very backward this year and while the acreage is, perhaps, unusually large, yet with adverse weather and poor seed, the yield is likely to fall below the average. A carload of lumber arrived this week for the new barn to be erected by S. E. Otis. The social committee of the Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. are arranging for a strawberry festival to be held at the church, Friday evening, June 18th. Remember the "Children's Day" observance at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. Charlie Eddy of Kankakee, Ill., is visiting relatives in this vicinity. The school in the Lunn district taught by Miss Mary E. Scott will close for the summer vacation this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldredge and daughters, Alice and Byle, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blunk at Hebron Ill. Henry Bartling and William Schultz were added to the C. & N. W. Ry. section force here last evening thus giving Foreman Hammel a full quota of men for the summer work. The Afton section is maintained in first-class shape and reflects greatly to the credit of its efficient "boss," Gabe Crist and family have moved into the Hills house and Mrs. Nellie McCrea will occupy the Powers house vacated by Mr. Crist. News just received from Beloit announces the death at that city Tuesday, of Lafayette Van Antwerp, one of the old time residents of Afton.

Barkers Corners News

$100,000,000 FOR FARMERS.
The sugar schedule in the Dingley tariff bill has a bearing on the beet sugar industry that few realize. The schedule was drawn with reference to the national platform adopted at St. Louis, which says:

"We condemn the present administration for not keeping faith with the sugar producers of the United States. The republican party favors such protection as will lead to the production on American soil of all the sugar which the American people use, and for which we are sending abroad annually more than $100,000,000 to foreign countries."

In this utterance the republican party distinctly puts itself down as the friend of the sugar beet industry, and it has distinctly and in terms promised the people to establish this industry, and it furthermore agreed that legislation in this branch of industry should be with this end in view, and not for the purpose of raising revenue. Beet sugar can be successfully produced in all of the states of the upper Mississippi valley and upon the Pacific coast. Knowing this the republicans in the house and senate demand that these hundred millions which go abroad every year be paid to the farmers of the United States.

The benefits from such a departure would be widespread as nearly the whole of this vast expenditure represents labor from the growing of the beet until the sugar is refined and ready for the market. Here is a little table that shows the amount of money that would be paid each year to our farmers and to each of the various trades and industries if the sugar now imported were produced in our own country.

To farmers for beets.....$77,280,000
To laborers in factories for pay-roll..... 17,509,600
To miners for coal..... 8,586,360
To quarries for lime rock..... 2,208,000
To coke manufacturers for coke..... 1,722,240
To textile manufacturers for filter cloth, filter bags and sugar bags..... 918,160
To machine shops and repairers for annual repairs..... 4,090,000
Figures such as these show what there is in the Dingley tariff for the farmer and for the wage-earner, and explain the general anxiety for the passage of that measure.

"FOR REVENUE ONLY."

Calling a spade a pitchfork does not make it such. Democrats, when they want the products of their sections protected, speak of the rates proposed as a "revenue duty." Nevertheless, they are perfectly willing to accept the rates of the Dingley bill, which everybody knows and recognizes as a thoroughly protective measure. The Texans make no objection to the Dingley rates on wool, the Louisiana and Florida people approve the rates on sugar, and those of South Carolina applaud the rice tariff and want a duty placed on cotton, and so on through the south. In all these cases they insist that the particular duty they ask is only a "revenue" rate. Nevertheless, they know that the figures named are a part of the protective system of the Dingley bill.

A few years ago high school commencement exercises were disposed of in one afternoon. Now they take up most of a week. There is more philosophy in the charge than appears on the surface. By emphasizing the importance of high school ceremonies and institutions a school spirit has been built up that works for good throughout the year, and the average strength of graduating classes has been more than doubled.

Since the self-appointed Waukesha committee found Governor Scofield quite as willing as they to investigate reform school charges their interest in the case seems to have flagged.

Just how insurance rates are to be lowered by the willingness of one hundred Janesville business men to pay $3 a year for a four page monthly, is yet to be explained.

Since the beginning of the year, 150,000,000 pounds of wool have been bought in Boston, three times as much as was bought in the same length of time last year. American wool growers who see Australian fleeces pouring in at this rate are inclined to chafe at tariff delays.

The willingness of Germany's peace party to "buy iron rather than blood" may result in a considerable expenditure of both.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT

Sent by Wire to the Byrd & Law Commission Company.

Washington, June 10.—Percentage of spring wheat area all country 110. Acreage winter wheat ninety four, six 94.6 of the area harvested last year or eighty nine, nine 89.9 per cent of the area sown in the fall of 1896. This in round numbers is 21,561,000 acres. Total area of spring wheat sown is in round numbers thirteen million acres and the combined winter and spring area is 34,589,000 acres or ninety nine, nine 99.9 per cent of that harvested in 1896.

The report of June first, consolidated from the returns of township, county and state correspondents of the department of agriculture makes the acreage of winter wheat at present growing after allowance for abandonments 94.6 per cent of the area harvested last year, or 89.9 per cent of the area sown in the fall of 1896. This in round numbers is 21,562,000 acres.

The percentage of winter wheat acreages upon the basis indicated on the principal winter wheat states are as follows:—Ohio, 97; Michigan, 99; Indiana, 94; Illinois, 51; Missouri, 90; Kansas, 97; California, 105.

In New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee and West Virginia, the area sown compared with that harvested last year has been materially increased.

The condition of winter wheat has fallen since report of May first, being 78.5 per cent, against 80.2 on that date, a decline of 1.7 points.

The condition on June first last year was 77.9.

The percentages of the principal states are Ohio 88, Michigan 79, Indiana 60, Illinois 38, Missouri 45, Kansas 88, California 73.

The percentage of spring wheat area for the entire country as compared with that of 1896 has been considerably increased, being 10 per cent of last year's acreage.

Total acreage spring wheat sown is therefore in round numbers, thirteen million acres, and the combined winter and spring area is 34,569,000 acres or 99.9 per cent of that harvested in 1896.

The condition of spring wheat shows an average for the whole country of 89.9, against 99.9 per cent on June 1, 1896.

The condition of all wheat is 82.7 against 88.6 per cent the same date last year. The conditions of spring wheat for the principal spring wheat states are as follows: Minnesota, 94, Wisconsin, 90, Iowa, 90, Nebraska, 94, South Dakota, 78, North Dakota, 91, Washington, 100, Oregon, 98.

The preliminary report places the acreage of oats at 93.3 per cent of last year's area, and makes the condition 89 per cent, against 98.8 last June.

Acreage of rye is 93 per cent of last year's. Condition of rye is 89.9 per cent.

Robert Lindblom comments on this report as follows: "I cannot see how we can get over 450 million crop from that report. Curb feeling firmer, 69."

CUPID'S PLANS CONSUMED

Deaths—Kueck.

A joyous wedding ceremony was performed at St. John's Lutheran church last evening when the pastor, Rev. George Kaempfle pronounced the words that united Carl W. Diehls and Miss Emaline Kueck as husband and wife. The wedding occurred at 7:20 o'clock. Miss Esther Kaempfle played the wedding march and the bride escorted by her father came up the north aisle preceded by the groom and his best man, George W. Diehls, brother of the groom. The altar was decorated with flowers and potted plants. The ceremony was performed when the bride party reached the altar. George Kueck, Fred Rentschler and Louis F. Bartling acted as ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered the newly wedded couple at the home of the bride's parents, 109 Caroline street, and an elaborate wedding supper was served.

The bride is the daughter of ex-Alderman and Mrs. C. H. Kueck, and is a most estimable young woman. The groom is the son of Mrs. Wilhelmina Diehls, and is an exemplary young man. He is now employed as head salesman at W. J. Skelly's book store. Mr. and Mrs. Diehls will make their home in a new residence now being erected by the groom, on Ruger avenue.

McCue—McCarthy.

Wedding congratulations were showered on a happy couple at St. Patrick's church this morning. The contracting parties were Miss Agnes McCarthy and Michael J. McCue. Rev. Father Collins performed the ceremony, which occurred at 8:30 o'clock. Charles McCue acted as groomsmen, and Miss Anna McCue as bridesmaid. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, among the guests who participated being Misses Minnie Connors, Jennie McCarthy, Nellie McCarthy, F. B. McCue and C. W. McCue, all of Waukesha, and Miss Jennie Curran, of Chicago.

The wedding was especially joyous because of the high standing of the principals. The bride is a young woman of rare qualities, and is a universal favorite. The groom is the proprietor of a livery stable on North Bluff street, and is known to all as a man of honor, enterprise and energy. Good nature and good sense are combined in him in a large degree, and all who know him pay high tribute to his character. Sincere well wishes will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. McCue on all sides.

Griffin-Welch.

Miss Theresa Welch and B. J. Griffin were married last evening at the parsonage of St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Collins officiating. Miss Elizabeth Welch, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Thomas Ford of Beloit, was best man. After the ceremony a very sumptuous repast was served at the home of the brother of the bride, M. J. Welch, 301 Cherry street. The happy couple left on the vestibule for St. Paul, and after June 15, they will be at home to their friends at 251 Cherry street. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Thomas Welch, of the town of Rock, while the groom is a resident of this city. A very large circle of friends wish them unbounded joy in their journey through life together.

The guests from out of town were Miss Anna Ford and J. Kelly, of Beloit, and Miss Eliza McCame, of Fond du Lac.

Bynum to Live in Brooklyn.

New York, June 10.—Ex-Congressman William D. Bynum, chairman of the national committee of the "national democracy," has decided to live in Brooklyn. He gave up his Indiana home some time ago, and is now with his wife and three children at the Pierpont house in Brooklyn. In explaining his change of base and the reasons therefor Mr. Bynum said he was influenced to come east by the fact that the party wanted its headquarters in this city instead of the west.

Minonk Miners Are Quiet.

Minonk, Ill., June 10.—The situation in Minonk is very quiet. At the inquest on the body of Morgan today the jury returned a verdict declaring the mine superintendent met death at the hands of a mob of infuriated Poles. So far no attempt has been made to arrest anyone thought to have been connected with Morgan's death.

Father and Son Killed.

Whiting, Ind., June 10.—As John Crowell, wife and 4-year-old son were returning to their home at Berry Lake, a mile from this place, they were struck by a Lake Shore and Michigan Southern passenger train, and father and son were instantly killed and the woman seriously injured.

BEDRIDDEN.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.

The Doctors Wanted Seven Hundred Dollars to Attempt the Case.

The following is a letter we received a short time ago from Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 602 North Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind. Gentlemen—While suffering intensely from piles, I became interested in your advertisement in one of our daily papers and procured a package of your Pyramid Pile Cure from our druggist. Contrary to any expectations, the relief was instantaneous. I used two boxes of the Pile Cure and one of the Pills and am convinced that they are the only sure cure for piles on the market. I have been a sufferer from piles for fifteen years and have been confined to my bed about one-half of the time, expecting and wishing for death for the pain was so great. I went to the college here and the doctors said my case was a new one to them, the great pain having brought on a large rupture, which they wanted seven hundred dollars to cut out. I was very much afraid that death would result from the blood-poisoning which they said would result from the operation. I feel as though I can't praise the Pyramid Pile Cure and the Pyramid Pills too highly, as I am convinced that they saved my life. Before using your cure I weighed only ninety pounds and now I weigh one hundred and fifty and feel as well as I ever did in my life. You are at liberty to use this testimonial in any manner you may see fit, as I want all sufferers from this terrible disease to know that there has at last been compounded a remedy that will cure piles. MRS. M. C. HINKLEY.

There is no need of the danger, pain and expense of a surgical operation for any form of piles. The Pyramid Pile Cure does the work without pain and is the safest and best. Remember also that the Pyramid Pills are a certain cure for constipation, acting without griping and restoring natural action to the bowels. The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 cents and $1.00, and the Pyramid Pills at 25 cents, or by mail from Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich.

BUY NEW WATCHES OF STANDARD GRADE

MANY C. M. & ST. P. EMPLOYEES HAVE TO INVEST.

Criterion of Excellence Established and Timepieces Must Pass Inspection Weekly—It Is Said Half the Watches of Employees Affected Will Not Now Meet Requirements

Employees of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway are now wondering how their watches will fare when they are brought under the scrutiny of the new inspection established by a circular letter issued yesterday from the general offices at Chicago. The circular letter is dated May 15, but not until yesterday was copies generally distributed among employees of the road. The inspection is similar to that established on several other railways, but the employees of the St. Paul railway say that it is even more strict than that of the usual inspection. Yesterday the men who are affected by the new bulletin, and it applies to nearly every one who has had anything to do with the train movement, were busy comparing their watches in an effort to determine whether or not they would be entitled to a certificate of standard excellence. There was a disposition on the part of some of the men to object to the order as being too strict, but there is no present prospect of a general remonstrance as some of the employees intimate.

Must Have Certificates June 15. The circular letter, which is over the signatures of General Manager A. J. Barling and General Superintendent W. G. Collins, says that a certain Chicago firm has been appointed official watch inspector for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway system. The new inspection was to take effect June 1, but no letters was issued until yesterday. A. M. Church & Co. will appoint local inspectors to whom all watches must be submitted for a certificate of standard excellence and for weekly inspection.

Every employee affected by the circular must secure a certificate from the local inspector and file it with his superior officer before June 15. On and after June 15, every watch must be submitted to the local inspector at least once a week for examination and regulating. The letter says that watches will be examined to determine whether they are standard or not, free of charge. On several railways the cost of weekly inspection is charged to the employees, but the St. Paul circular says nothing about this. The classes of employees affected are as follows: Train masters, train dispatchers, conductors, train baggage men, brakemen, flagmen, yard masters, foremen of switching crews, engineers, firemen, engine dispatchers and roundhouse foremen.

Requirements of Watches. Every employee named in the list must be provided with a standard excellence not later than July 1. The watches, to pass inspection must be what is known as the American movement, 17 jewel, patent regulator, fully adjusted and the variation not to exceed thirty seconds a week. So far as the men are able to determine from behavior of the watches they now have, only about half of them will bear the test. Men who have watches below standard must provide themselves with acceptable watches before July 1. Arrangements have been made by which the local inspectors will sell watches to the men on monthly payments, the time not to exceed four months, and the payments will be deducted from the check of the employee on pay day. All new employees must obtain a watch certificate before they can begin work. While an employee's watch is being repaired he must be supplied with a substitute of required standard. If his watch is repaired by the local inspector a standard watch will be loaned while his watch is in the shop.

Adopted as a Safeguard. Each employee will be supplied with a watch card which the local inspector will receipt for weekly inspections. The cards will be renewed on March 1, June 1, Sept. 1 and Dec. 1 and each card must show at least twelve weekly inspections. Failure to have a watch inspected weekly will be regarded as an infringement of the rules of the company that must be satisfactorily explained.

The purpose of the inspectorship is to insure improved efficiency and afford additional safe guards for the protection of property and life against accident. The circular announcing the new departure is long and gives minute directions. Nothing in the circular restricts the men to the local inspector in buying watches or having them cleaned. They may patronize whomever they please, but all work is subject to approval by the inspector.

Preserving Time. It is almost if not quite time for every housewife to think of the preserving of some of the fruits for the season's use. We have just received a very large invoice of fruit jars in anticipation of our usual large sale. We have them in pints, quarts and two quarts and guarantee the quality and price. Sanborn & Co.

State Convention for Kentucky. Louisville, Ky., June 10.—A call was issued Wednesday by the "National Democratic" executive committee for a state convention to meet in this city July 14 to nominate a candidate for clerk of the court of appeals, the only state office to be filled at the November elections.

GOT A DAY IN JAIL FOR EACH MINUTE

CONNELLY AND DELANEY GIVEN TWENTY DAYS.

Borrowing Dr. O. G. Bennett's Horse Proves Fun—Case Suggests the Need of a Better Place Than the County Jail For Youthful Offenders Bread Seekers In Court.

A lively stable will get some trade next time. Thomas Connelly and Joe Delaney want a ride.

Exercising borrowed horses has too much risk about it.

For a twenty minute ride in Dr. Bennett's rig, they must serve twenty days in jail.

The question is whether the fun pays for the forced sequestration.

Even the fact that they escaped a trial for horse-stealing, doesn't comfort them.

"I got all the jail I wanted last night," said Connelly emphatically, "and I want to go back to work."

Connelly and Delaney were brought into court by Chief Hogan. They felt very neighborly, and hung over the bar as if it were the back fence of a ball park.

Judge Phelps corrected this laxity, and read the complaints charging that they had taken Dr. O. G. Bennett's black horse unlawfully, feloniously and against the peace and dignity of the state of Wisconsin, and had overdriven, overworked, beat, tormented and abused it.

The list was a formidable one, but the boys pleaded guilty.

Did Not Like the Jail.

"Have you anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced?" asked Judge Phelps.

Delaney hadn't, but Connelly insisted that he wanted to go back to work.

"That is hardly a sufficient excuse for your treatment of Dr. Bennett's horse," suggested the court. "Neither of you has ever been before me until this time, however, and I understand that you have never been sentenced. I wish there was some other place to send you than to the county jail among old criminals."

"Yes, I had enough jail last night," declared Connelly.

"Just such offenses as yours make trouble every little while, however," insisted the court. "You will each be confined in the county jail for twenty days at hard labor."

Were After Meat.

John Mulcair, John Dorsey and Will O'Donnell were pampering their appetites yesterday. Chief Hogan heard that they asked for a cold lunch at two or three South Main street houses, and insisted that nothing but fresh bread would do and that there must be plenty of cold meat, sliced thin.

For fear that when they got further along the street they might be gorging themselves with pie, salad and other indigestibles he took them down to the jail where they could have medical care. The charge against them when they came up in court this morning, was vagrancy and they all pleaded not guilty.

Later on they pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness, and were sent to jail for from three to five days each.

Nathan Thornton admitted that he drank too much last night, and paid a fine of $1 and costs to square it.

CHICAGO MARKETS BY WIRE. Robert Lindblom's Letter On the Condition of Crops and Trade.

Chicago, June 10.—[Special to Byrd & Law Commission Co.]—Receipts have actually commenced to decrease again and the decrease ought to be permanent. The selling yesterday on the break was overdone and this morning there were no offerings, but the bulls were stunned by the rapid downward reaction of yesterday and somehow they had lost their grip and were not very aggressive.

Export clearances are large and so are shipments out of Chicago and Duluth and it does look as though we were bound to see actual scarcity staring us in the face ere long. The drawback to an upward tendency of the market is the government report which will come out this afternoon and it is expected that it will be bearish as usual. No matter what the figures may be, there is sure to be inculcated into the report some paragraph which can be bearishly construed.

There was a frost in Northern Michigan and Oregon last night and the weather throughout the corn belt continues extremely backward. There is no cause for any grave apprehensions yet, but if present conditions prevail for another fortnight the situation will be rather dangerous and the corn market reflects in a mild way this uneasiness.

Provisions have made no material progress, but it is only a question of time when they will.

FARMERS AT WORK FIXING THE ROAD

MACADAM USED ON COUNTRY HIGHWAY.

Sample Piece Is Now Being Put Down, And If It Proves Satisfactory, the Whole Johnstown Road Will Be Similarly Treated—May Open New Era.

Farmers in the town of Harmony have commenced active preparations for the proposed macadamized road between this city and Johnstown.

One hundred and fifty yards of this road is now being constructed on the Milwaukee avenue extension of the road in front of the Jackman farm about half a mile from the Fair grounds.

If it proves a success it means much to this city. Stone purchased from the city of Janesville and crushed at the Millmore quarry is being used for the foundation and upon this will be placed layers of gravel.

The men who now have the work in charge are working out their road tax, but they take an extra deep interest in the matter. If the plan is found satisfactory they will follow up the scheme until the whole road is treated in the same manner.

The experiment will be watched with interest. Farmers say that it is as easy to work out their road tax by hauling and spreading stone as by using the plow and scraper. If Johnstown farmers find the plan a good one doubtless others will adopt it. By following up this scheme, every road leading out of the city could be macadamized for about the cost of the "improvements" made under the present system.

A PANIC ON A STREET CAR. Passengers in a Scramble To Escape From Burning Car.

The motor burned out of a street car near the corner of Academy and Madison streets last evening, at 10:40 o'clock, setting fire to the floor of the car. The passengers were panic stricken, and scrambled out of the cars in a hurry. Some of them went through the door, and some of them through the windows, but they got out in safety. An alarm was turned in from box 16, but the blaze was extinguished before the department arrived.

FASHION NOTES.

Thin Cloth For Tailor Made Costumes.

Mousseline de Laine.
The general tendency of the mode has already been described in this column, and it remains now to indicate some of the details, odd or pretty, which form a part of the season's characteristics. Never was there a greater variety of material offered at once than now. Wools are very numerous and are all recognizable as belonging in familiar categories in spite of the new names under which they are disguised. Thin cloths of all colors are seen for tailor made costumes. Poil de chevreau and mousseline de laine in charming varieties are in great demand, the last named being trimmed with yellow lace, embroidery, narrow ruffles of thin taffeta. The use of wool and of silk are alike recommended for their beauty of coloring and the originality of their design. Broken lines, stripes and checks share the honors with figured materials.
Silk fabrics, more and more a la mode, leave nothing to be desired in the way of novelty. Foulards, broche silks and taffetas, which reign supreme for both gowns and petticoats, compose the ideal summer costumes for elegant occasions. Etamine and canvas, crepons of various sorts, embroidered muslin, linen and all materials of the same class are used, lace and embroidery being the necessary adjuncts and belts, bows and other accessories being supplied by taffeta.

A picture is given of a new bicycle costume. It is of finely striped black and white serge. The very full bloomers are fitted in front and over the hips, but are arranged behind in two box plaits, simulating a skirt. The bloomers are gathered in just below the knee. The fitted bolero has slashed revers faced with white cloth, and the close sleeves have cuffs of white cloth. The shirt waist is white, the cravat black. The belt, also black, is of silk. The sailor hat is of black and white straw, the shoes of tan leather. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WEDDING FASHIONS.

Dress of the Bride's Mother—Placing the Veil.

At a ceremonious wedding the mother of the bride should wear a rich costume with a train, and this costume should not be black if by any possibility it can be avoided. Violet, dark green, copper and claret are all appropriate colors. The bodice may be trimmed with nice lace, embroidery or similar decoration, and a small capote may be worn, but no wrap, however small. The bride's veil, if it is of tulle, should cover the gown at the back and fall half way down the skirt in front. The crown of orange flowers is placed well forward on the hair and the veil above it. If the veil is of lace, it is arranged over the back of the hair and falls entirely behind, the crown being set above it. The tulle veil is always more becoming than the lace one if less rich and striking.

For the guests at a wedding no special rule of costume is prescribed unless the omission of black be considered a rule. Just now, however, all elegant costumes are made rather long at the back, lying three or four inches on the ground, and a wedding is one of the best occasions upon which to wear a trained gown. The train is easily cut off when it is no longer desired, and a trailing gown has a distinction that is lacking to a round skirt.

The bridesmaids wear light colored toilets of silk, velvet, mousseline de soie or other material, according to taste and the season. They arrange among themselves that the colors shall not conflict. In America bridesmaids often dress all alike or at least in the same style of gown, even when the tints differ. In France this fashion does not obtain. Pink, pale blue, cream, mauve and pale green are the most fashionable colors for bridesmaids' costumes.

The sketch shows a wedding gown of white satin. The skirt is quite plain, having a long train, and is lined throughout with white silk. The bodice is plain and tight at the back, but crossed in front, fastening at the side under a cluster of orange blossoms, and adorned with revers of old point. The long, tight sleeves have full caps of old point, with shoulder knots of orange blossoms. The guimpe and collar are of mousseline de soie and the sleeve and neck frills of old point. The illusion veil is worn over a crown of orange blossoms. JUDIC CHOLLET.

GIVES STRENGTH TO MEN

Free To All Who Are Weak And Worn

A METHOD TO CURE AND INCREASE THE POWER.

It is a remarkable fact that a man never appreciates the sufferings of others until he himself has passed through the fire of pain or remorse. Then it is that he looks around for those who are suffering; he wants them to profit by his experience; he gives his time and money gladly for the benefit of others and never tires of his zeal. There are plenty of men weak and worn out, struggling with remorse and fear, the natural outcome of habits that brought incapacity; a sense of loneliness and a feeling as if the best side of life had been banished forever. Such men should write to Thomas Slater, Box 494, Kalamazoo, Mich. He will send free by mail, in a plain, sealed envelope, full particulars about the method he used, and this will enable any man to get a complete cure at home. It is the method that Mr. Slater used to cure himself of the troubles that sap the strength and vigor and also enlarged his organs to normal size. The cure was complete, so satisfying and such a wonderful change from his former condition that he will gladly tell others all about it, sending all particulars. He figures that he doesn't know of a better way to show his appreciation of his own cure and sufferings of others. There must be generous men in this world to off set the tide of avarice. Write to Mr. Slater. It will cost nothing for his description and method.

CHAPTER IX.

A TALK BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Looking at my watch I found it was a little after 3, which meant 6 in Washington. Allowing for transmission, a telegram would reach there in time to be on hand with the opening of the departments. I therefore wired at once to the following effect:

Postmaster General, Washington:

A peremptory mandamus has been issued by territorial judge to compel me to deliver to addressees the three registered letters which by your directions, issued Oct. 16, I was to hold pending arrival of Special Agent Jackson. Service of writ will be made at 3:45 today unless prevented. Telegraph me instructions how to act.

That done, I had a good tub, took a brisk walk down the track and felt so refreshed up as to be none the worse for my sleepless night. I returned to the station a little after 6, and, to my surprise, found Miss Cullen walking up and down the platform.

"You are up early!" we both said together.

"Yes," she sighed. "I couldn't sleep last night."

"You're not unwell, I hope?"

"No—except mentally."

I looked a question, and she went on, "I have some worries, and then last night I saw you were all keeping some bad news from me, and so I couldn't sleep."

"Then we did wrong to make a mystery of it, Miss Cullen," I said, "for it really isn't anything to trouble about. Mr. Camp is simply taking legal steps to try to force me to deliver those letters to him."

"And can he succeed?"

"No."

"How will you stop him?"

"I don't know yet just what we shall do, but if worse comes to worst I will allow myself to be committed for contempt of court."

"What would they do with you?"

"Give me free board for a time."

"Not send you to prison?"

"Yes."

"Oh," she cried, "that mustn't be! You must not make such a sacrifice for us."

"I'd do more than that for you," I said. And I couldn't help putting a little emphasis on the last word, though I knew I had no right to do it.

She understood me and blushed rosily, even while she protested, "It is too much!"

"There's really no likelihood," I interrupted, "of my being able to assume a martyr's crown, Miss Cullen, so don't begin to pity me till I'm behind the bars."

"But I can't bear to think!"

"Don't," I interrupted again, rejoicing all the time at her evident anxiety and blessing my stars for the lack they had brought me. "Why, Miss Cullen, I went on, 'I've become so interested in your success and the liking of those fellows that I really think I'd stand about anything rather than that they should win. Yesterday, when Mr. Camp threatened to—' Then I stopped, as it suddenly occurred to me that it was best not to tell Madge that I might lose my position, for it would look like a kind of bid for her favor, and, besides, would only add to her worries."

"Threatened what?" asked Miss Cullen.

"Threatened to lose his temper," I answered.

"You know that wasn't what you were going to say," Madge said reproachfully.

"No, it wasn't," I laughed.

"Then what was it?"

"Nothing worth speaking about."

"But I want to know what he threatened."

"Really, Miss Cullen"—I began, but she interrupted me by saying anxiously: "He can't hurt papa, can he?"

"No," I replied.

"Or my brothers?"

"He can't touch any of them without my help. And he'll have work to get that, I suspect."

"Then why can't you tell me?" demanded Miss Cullen. "Your refusal makes me think you are keeping back some danger to them."

"Why, Miss Cullen," I said, "I didn't like to tell his threat because it seemed—well, I may be wrong, but I thought it might look like an attempt—an appeal—Oh, pshaw!" I faltered, like a donkey. "I can't say it as I want to put it."

"Then tell me right out what he threatened," said Madge.

"He threatened to get me discharged," I said.

That made Madge look very sober, and for a moment there was silence. Then she said:

"I never thought of what you were risking to help us, Mr. Gordon. And I'm afraid it's too late to—"

"Don't worry about me," I hastened to interject. "I'm a long way from being discharged, and, even if I should be, Miss Cullen, I know my business, and it won't be long before I have another place."

"But it's terrible to think of the injury you may have caused you," said Madge sadly. "It makes me hate the thought of money."

"That's a very poor thing to hate," I said, "except the lack of it."

"Are you so anxious to get rich?" asked Madge, looking up at me quickly as we walked, for we had been pacing up and down the platform during our chat.

"I haven't been till lately," I said.

"And what made you change?" she questioned.

"Well," I said, fishing round for some reason other than the true one, "perhaps I want to take a rest."

"You are the worst man for fibs I ever knew," she laughed.

I felt myself getting red, while I exclaimed, "Why, Miss Cullen, I don't think I'm a bit worse liar than—"

"Oh," she cried, interrupting me, "I didn't mean that way. I meant that when you try to fib you always do it so badly that one sees right through you."

Now, acknowledge that you wouldn't stop work if you could."

"Well, no, I wouldn't," I owned up.

"The truth is, Miss Cullen, that I'd like to be rich because—well, hang it, I don't care if I do say it—because I'm in love."

Madge laughed at my confusion and said, "With money?"

"No," I said, "with just the nicest, sweetest, prettiest girl in the world."

Madge took a look at me out of the corner of her eye and remarked, "It must be breakfast time."

Considering that it was about 6:30, I wanted to ask who was telling a taradiddle now, but I resisted the temptation and said:

"No, and I promise not to bother you about my private affairs any more."

Madge laughed again merrily, saying: "You are the most obvious man I ever met. Now why did you say that?"

"I thought you were making breakfast an excuse," I said, "because you didn't like the subject."

"Yes, I was," said Madge frankly.

"I'd do more than that for you."

"Tell me about the girl you are engaged to."

I was so taken aback that I stopped in my walk and merely looked at her.

"For instance," she asked coolly, when she saw that I was speechless, "what does she look like?"

"Like, like"—I stammered, still embarrassed by this bold carrying the war into my own camp—"like an angel."

"Oh," said Madge eagerly, "I've always wanted to know what angels were like! Describe her to me."

"Well," I said, getting my second wind, so to speak, "she has the bluest eyes I've ever seen. Why, Miss Cullen, you said you'd never seen anything so blue as the sky yesterday, but even the atmosphere of 'rainless Arizona' has to take a back seat when her eyes are round. And they are just like the atmosphere out here. You can look into them for 100 miles, but you can't get to the bottom."

"The Arizona sky is wonderful," said Madge. "How do the scientists account for it?"

I wasn't going to have my description of Miss Cullen side tracked, for since she had given me the chance I wanted her to know just what I thought of her. I didn't follow lead on the Arizona skies, but went on:

"And I really think her hair is just as beautiful as her eyes. It's light brown, very curly and—"

"Her complexion!" exclaimed Madge. "Is she a mulatto, and, if so, how can a complexion be curly?"

"Her complexion," I said, not a bit rattled, "is another great beauty of hers. She has one of those skins—"

"Furs are out of fashion at present," she interjected, laughing wickedly.

"Now, look here, Miss Cullen!" I cried indignantly. "I'm not going to let even you make fun of her."

"I can't help it," she laughed, "when you look so serious and intense."

"It's something I feel intense about, Miss Cullen," I said, not a little pained. I confess, at the way she was joking. I don't mind a bit being laughed at, but Miss Cullen knew about as well as I whom I was talking about, and it seemed to me she was laughing at my love for her. Under this impression I went on: "I suppose it is funny to you. Probably so many men have been in love with you that it has come to mean very little in your eyes. But out here we don't make a joke of love, and when we care for a woman we care—well, it's not to be put in words, Miss Cullen."

"I really didn't mean to hurt your feelings, Mr. Gordon," said Madge gently, and quite serious now. "I ought not to have tried to tease you."

"There!" I said, my irritation entirely gone. "I had no right to lose my temper, and I'm sorry I spoke so unkindly. The truth is, Miss Cullen, the girl I care for is in love with another man, and so I'm bitter and in natured in these days."

My companion stopped walking at the steps of 218 and said, "Has she told you so?"

"No," I answered. "But it's as plain as she's pretty."

Madge ran up the steps and opened the door of the car. As she turned to close it she looked down at me with the oddest of expressions and said:

"How dreadfully ugly she must be!"

Notable Values in Ready-Made Skirts, Silk and Velvet Capes and Wash Goods.

The backward season has thrown thousands of dollars' worth of such merchandise on the market at prices positively less than the cost of manufacture, and the result of Mr. Reid's visit to the market the past week will be found in some of the best offerings of the whole season. Several cases of Wash Goods are among the arrivals and there are many new things among them never seen before.

"Nanola Dimity." Light and dark grounds, including black and white. Sixty pieces of one of the best fabrics produced; width 26 inches; patterns all new. Your guess at the price would say a shilling, but you would have to guess again, for it's 5c.

Fine Organdies (dimity) and Nainsooks The very newest designs and colorings in a large range of styles; mid-season novelties that are different from the ordinary run. Values as never before—per yard, 10c. Width, 30 inches.

CAPES are necessary for evening wear all summer. To own one of ours is easy; the new line is at half price and less. One of velvet is silk lined, has lace ruche and is embroidered in colors. Twenty of them are offered at $2.87; another of velvet with ribbon ruche, novelty silk lining, is $3.50. One with Empire plait in the back, wide collar of velvet, brocade silk lining, ribbon ruche—$4.00, others up to $7.50. All the above Capes are in black only. Colored Capes are cheaper yet next to nothing prices.

Silk and Sicilian Skirts. Large patterns are the favorites and this new line displays some handsome designs. They are tailor-made cut full width, well lined and are positive bargains at the prices, —$2½, $3, $4, $4½, $5, up to $7½ for the silk brocades of ten and twelve dollar values.
